Each passenger needs a farecard to enter and exit. Up to two children under age five may travel free with a paying customer.

Fares are based on when and how far you ride. Pay regular fares 5-9:30 a.m. and 3-7 p.m. weekdays and 2-3 a.m. Friday and Saturday nights. Pay reduced fares at all other times including federal holidays.

Farecard machines are in every station. Bring small bills because there are no change machines in the stations and farecard machines only provide up to $5 in change (in coins). Passes/Farecards machines accept credit and debit cards.

Get one day of unlimited Metrorail rides with a One Day Pass. Buy it from a Passes/Farecards machine in Metro stations. Use it after 9:30 a.m. until closing on weekdays, and all day on weekends and federal holidays.

Hours of service

Open: 5 a.m. Mon.-Fri. 7 a.m. Sat.-Sun.

Close: midnight Sun.-Thurs. 3 a.m. Fri.-Sat. nights

Last train times vary. To avoid missing the last train, please check the last train times posted in stations.

Metrobus

When paying with exact change, the fare is $1.35. When paying with a SmartTrip® card, the fare is $1.25.

Fares for senior/disabled customers

Senior citizens 65 and older, people with disabilities and customers with a Medicare card may ride for half the regular fare. On Metrorail, use a senior/disabled farecard or SmartTrip® card. On Metrobus, use a senior/disabled bus pass or SmartTrip® card or show your Metro ID or Medicare card and pay the senior/disabled fare. For more information about qualifying for a Metro ID and buying senior/disabled farecards, SmartTrip® cards and passes, please visit MetroOpensDoors.com or call 202-637-7000 (TTY 202-638-3780).

Free orientations on how to use accessible Metrobus and Metrorail services are available to senior citizens and people with disabilities by calling 202-962-1100 (TTY 202-962-2033).

SmartTrip® cards

SmartTrip® is a plastic farecard that can be reloaded with value and used over and over to pay Metrorail and Metrobus fares and parking fees at Metro-operated lots.

SmartTrip® cards are sold from the dispensing machines in Metrorail stations with major parking facilities. Cards cost $10 ($5 for the card with $5 in value already on it). Fare and parking value can be added to SmartTrip® cards at Passes/Farecards machines. You can also buy a SmartTrip® card online with a credit card. The online price is $30 ($5 for the card with $25 in value already on it).

Parking at Metro stations

During the week (through 3 a.m. Friday nights) there is a daily parking fee. A SmartTrip® card with full parking fee is required to exit Metro lots and garages. Cash is not accepted. Simply touch the circular SmartTrip® target at the parking gate with your card to pay the daily fee.

Daily parking fees vary by station and are posted at the parking entrance/exit and on our Web site. The station manager can help you buy a SmartTrip® card, checking the balance on a card you already have or adding value to your card.

There is no parking fee on weekends and federal holidays.

Travel tips

To avoid lines at farecard machines in Metro stations after major events, buy a roundtrip farecard or make sure you have roundtrip fare on your SmartTrip® card at the start of your trip.

Avoid riding during weekday rush periods—before 9:30 a.m. and between 4 and 6 p.m.

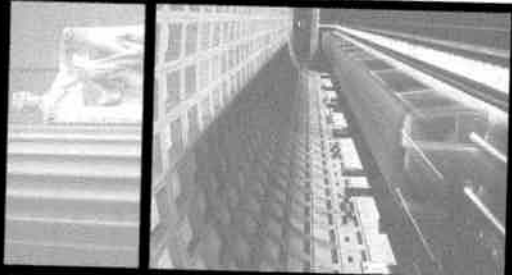

Use Metrorail stations other than Smithsonian during high tourist season.

If you lose an item on a bus or train or in a station, please call Lost & Found at 202-962-1195 or visit our Web site.

You may bring your bicycle on Metrorail during non-rush periods only. All Metrobuses have bicycle racks for use anytime.
